I Corinthians 2:9-10 "But as it is written: "Eye has not seen, nor ear Heard, neither has entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those that love Him."

Chorus:

There's more glory, to be revealed! There's more glory, to be revealed!
{More Glory!} {More Glory!}
{More Glory!} {More Glory!}
There's more glory, to be revealed!

Verse 1:

See I can't stunt nor lie, cause God's been so good to me!
Let me see.. He bought me, brought me close {Yeah!}
That's what I know {Yeah!} He bought me, brought me close {Yeah, Yeah!}
And the coming Glory is greater! I set my hopes on the Savior whose on His way back!
Say that! Great acts, of faith, coming to past which last through everlasting, The Master is on His way!
And ain't no greater place to be, than in His kingdom, if you seem to be disgraced, seek His face!
Anytime you're reminded of the past, speak in faith, don't debate!
Know the coming Glory cannot be displaced!

Verse 2:

Thank God for His great Grace, whatever I face, I've been taught to run my race with patience..
So when satan brings a makeshift, I won't take it, I'm waiting on a manifestation, of true Glory!
It's a true story, don't have to wear suits for it, but its better suited to believe.
What's needed is great faith, Glory takes place when our faith is in operation.
This is a confrontation of condemnation from generations ago!
Behold, the Lamb has come! My shame is undone! My hope is confirmed!
His will is revealed! My race shall be won!
